

Cookies

Cookies are very small text files that are stored on your computer when you visit some websites.

If you are not happy for cookies from our website to be placed on your computer simply close our website and navigate elsewhere.

We use cookies to help identify your computer so we can tailor your user experience.

You can disable any cookies already stored on your computer, but these may stop our website from functioning properly.

We will specifically track the pages you visit via Google Analytics, which we use to enhance and improve our website.

The website will not share any personal information with third parties.

How to control cookies

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish – for details, see www.aboutcookies.org

You can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work.
